Mobile Buying Guide

Samsung makes the smartphones your life can't do without — featuring all the latest innovations. Question is, which Galaxy mobile device is right for you?

Smartphones that expand your world

The new Galaxy S8 and S8+ free you to live every part of your life anywhere.

Galaxy S8

Introducing the Infinitely Amazing Galaxy S8. It unlocks with a look, connects to your home and can pretty much take you anywhere with Gear VR¹. It's big, brilliant screen is HDR certified and the camera is smart, sharp and selfie-friendly. And meet Bixby, the intelligent interface that learns from you to help you do more.

Galaxy S8+

The world's first Infinity Screen display stretches from edge to edge, giving you the most amount of screen in the least amount of space. Watch shows and films the way they were meant to be seen, and multi-task with multiple windows². And the Galaxy S8+ is even more expansive—our biggest screen.³

Smartphones that unlock new possibilities

From viewing videos in breathtaking clarity to taking perfect photos, the Galaxy S7 and S7 edge fit who you are.

Galaxy S7

Big on screen and slim on profile, the Galaxy S7 has an IP68 rating⁴ that protects it from spills. The world's first dual-pixel smartphone camera makes capturing low-light photos a breeze. Power up in no time with fast wireless charging,⁵ and add up to 256GB with expandable memory.⁶

Galaxy S7 edge

The edge keeps getting better. With GS7 edge, you'll still be able to more quickly access your favorite apps and contacts. But now everyday actions, like composing messages or setting an alarm, are that much simpler, thanks to the addition of Task Edge. Instant access to what you access the most. That's the beauty of the Samsung edge.

A smartphone that does more

The ultra-efficient Samsung Galaxy Note5 has a large screen and S Pen, so you can keep moving and keep working.

Galaxy Note5

Elevate your productivity with the Samsung Galaxy Note5, featuring the S Pen you'll only find with a Galaxy Note. This premium, big-screen device has a sleek metal and glass design and works effortlessly with other Samsung devices thanks to SideSync®.*
